

News Roundup: Crime in India

 Abhijeet Singh · Feb 23, 2025 · 📖 4 min read

News Roundup: Crime in India

Published on 2025-02-23

Introduction

Below you'll find a curated overview of the latest news about crime in india. This post aggregates multiple sources and includes both original and AI-generated images.

Combined Summary

'Is Celebrating Holi A Crime...': Uproar After Pakistani University Sends Show-Cause Notice To Students Curated By : News18.com Last Updated: February 23, 2025, 20:32 IST The Pakistani university, Dawood University of Engineering and Technology (DUET), said that it was an old case and said it did not file FIR against students. A crime data analysis conducted through the GujCop application by state police officials revealed that 25 per cent of all violent crimes occur in Gujarat's four major cities, with 45 per cent of these crimes taking place between 6 p.m. and midnight. While the project initially focuses on seven police stations, sources confirm that the Police Commissioner has directed all police stations in Vadodara to implement similar measures to enhance security across the city. The accused was on his way to Vijayawada in Andhra Pradesh to evade arrest, police said. Location : Islamabad, Pakistan First Published: February 23, 2025, 20:31 IST The Vadodara City Police has launched 'Project Shashtra' (Campaign to Prevent Physical Crimes) based on crime data analysis.

Detailed Summaries

1. Delhi crime: 50-year-old kills 22-year-old for seeking money to have a relationship

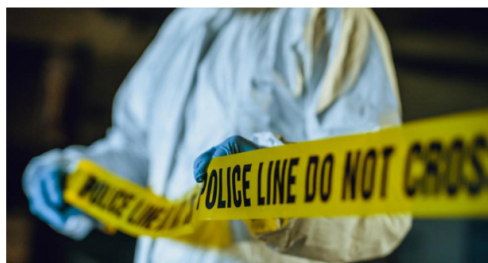

Source: Hindustan Times

Read Full Article: Link

Article Summary:

A 50-year-old man was arrested on Saturday night for allegedly murdering a 22-year-old woman, who demanded money to have a physical relationship with him at his house in Wazipur slum area on Friday night, and dumping her body outside a urinal in Ashok Vihar in a gunny bag. Police said Prasad works as a labourer at the Azadpur Fruit Mandi and was returning home on Friday night, when he met the woman near the Azadpur flyover and invited her home. (Getty Images) Police said they were informed about the body by a passerby around 6am on Saturday and three names tattooed on the body helped establish her identity. The accused was identified as Keshav Prasad, a resident of CSA Colony in the Wazipur industrial area, deputy commissioner of police (north west) Bisham Singh said. The accused was on his way to Vijayawada in Andhra Pradesh to evade arrest, police said.

Original Image:

2. 'Is Celebrating Holi A Crime...': Uproar After Pakistani University Sends Show-Cause Notice To Students

Source: CNN-News18

Read Full Article: Link

Article Summary:

'Is Celebrating Holi A Crime...': Uproar After Pakistani University Sends Show-Cause Notice To Students Curated By : News18.com Last Updated: February 23, 2025, 20:32 IST The Pakistani university, Dawood University of Engineering and Technology (DUET), said that it was an old case and said it did not file FIR against students. Lal Malhi, expressing concern over the growing criminalisation of minority religious practices in Pakistan, questioned: "Has the celebration of Holi now become a crime? Is celebrating Holi at a university considered an act against the State?" Last year, Hindu students faced similar issues in some other provinces during the Holi festival. (IMAGE: @AdityaRajKaul/X) A leading private university in Karachi city of Pakistan's Sindh province has been criticized for issuing a show-cause notice to students for celebrating the Hindu festival of Holi on its campus. In this photo shared on social media, students of Pakistani university DUET pictured celebrating Holi in this undated photograph. Lal Malhi, a former parliamentarian, posted on social media the notice issued to the students, most of them Hindus, by Dawood University of Engineering and Technology.

Original Image:

AI-Generated Illustration:

AI-generated image related to this article.

3. Vadodara's high-crime zones under police radar with 'Project Shashtra'

Source: The Hans India

Read Full Article: Link

Article Summary:

A crime data analysis conducted through the GujCop application by state police officials revealed that 25 per cent of all violent crimes occur in Gujarat's four major cities, with 45 per cent of these crimes taking place between 6 p.m. While the project initially focuses on seven police stations, sources confirm that the Police Commissioner has directed all police stations in Vadodara to implement similar measures to enhance security across the city. Senior police officials attended the launch, where the Police Commissioner instructed officers to intensify foot patrolling, vehicle checks, blockades, and raids on anti-social elements during the high-crime hours of 6 p.m. For instance, Ahmedabad has a crime rate of 96.6 per 100,000 people, ranking it fifth among major Indian cities, while Surat's rate is 64.3, placing it third. The Vadodara City Police has launched 'Project Shashtra' (Campaign to Prevent Physical Crimes) based on crime data analysis.

Original Image:

AI-Generated Illustration:

AI-generated image related to this article.

This news roundup was automatically curated and published using AI. Last updated: 2025-02-23

Subscribe to our newsletter

Read articles from testing-news directly inside your inbox. Subscribe to the newsletter, and don't miss out.

SUBSCRIBE

news

MORE ARTICLES

Abhijeet Singh

News Roundup: Politics in China
News Roundup: Politics in China Published on 2025-02-23
Introduction Below you'll find a curated ove...

Abhijeet Singh

News Roundup: Politics in India
News Roundup: Politics in India Published on 2025-02-23
Introduction Below you'll find a curated ov...

Abhijeet Singh

समाचार राउंडअप: भारत में सनी लियोन
News Roundup: Sunny Leone in India Published on 2025-02-23
Introduction Below you'll find a curated ...

Powered by Hashnode - Build your developer hub.

Start your blog

Create docs